

Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary in the
impactful remaining
days of the presidential election.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest and provide balanced coverage.
When a small number
of companies control
the airwaves, we get
political and
profit-driven
programming and less
protection of our democracy. It's critical that we see
more substantive
news about issues
that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. Most importantly, they
show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
review of practices
by partisan-driven
companies. Thank you.
